

Flair for special moments.

One time Eurogress. Three times impressing. An impressive event without a location where it can be performed with virtuosity is inconceivable. The Eurogress is that perfect place for you and your event. Modern architecture convertible room concepts and an endless variety of possibilities of use are the reason that in the Eurogress the three different functions congress, culture and event find the equally suitable and perfect environment.

Therefore the team of the Eurogress, which is specialised in full-scale service, has experiences from TV-shows and scientific congresses to concert events of internationally renowned artists.

Make use of this know-how in favour of your event. We are looking forward to see you!

During the day the Eurogress presents itself as a meeting and conference centre with ultra-modern equipment, at night as a stylish venue for concerts and events. All this in a unique location just a few minutes walking distance from the city centre of Aachen. Nestled in the middle of the Aachen spa gardens, between the hotel Quellenhof and the casino, the restful park environment offers much room for relaxed moments during the congress period. Many of our customers have been delighted by that combination. You are as well? Let yourself be inspired ...
